

THE LEE KUAN YEW SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY

DEAN'S FUND

ABOUT THE DEAN'S FUND

The Dean's Fund, is made up of gifts to the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy that are not designated for a specific purpose. Giving unrestricted financial support to the Public Policy School through a contribution to the Dean's Fund allows the School the flexibility to allocate donations to areas in which they are most needed, such as:

- New program initiatives
- Alumni and students' activities
- Student Fellowship
- Faculty Research
- Research Centers
- Events
- Honorariums to attract renowned speakers
- Recruitment of faculties
- Seed money for projects
- Facility improvements
- Exchange Students with collaboration Public Policy Universities etc.

In addition to scholarships, programs and other initiatives, the Dean's Fund allows the school to respond to unexpected opportunities or challenges as and when they arise.

GIVING TO THE DEAN'S FUND

Each year, Dean's Fund donors receive a report on the results of their contributions as well as recognition. Newsletters and invitations to events at the school are also used to keep donors connected to the school's latest efforts and achievements.
