

IWP RESEARCH SEMINAR

WATER GOVERNANCE IN INDIA AND CHINA: COMPARISON OF WATER LAW, POLICY AND ADMINISTRATION

We compare water governance between China and India in terms of water laws, policies and administration based on a survey of 182 water experts from 19 provinces / states. We find that water governance in China is consistently stronger compared with India across 17 indicators of water governance. We speculate that these variations could be attributed to differences in political, legal and administrative systems as well as levels of economic development and political leadership.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Assoc Prof Eduardo Araral

Vice-Dean (Research) and Associate Professor, Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy
Director, Institute of Water Policy, Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy

Eduardo Araral is a theoretician and a practitioner. As a theoretician, he specializes in the study of the causes and consequences of institutions for collective action and the governance of the commons. He has received 12 awards and recognitions including fellowships from the research centers of 3 Nobel Laureates (Economics), the Ostrom Prize for the Governance of the Commons, Fulbright Phd Awards, a US National Science Foundation Grant, Finalist in the Best Dissertation Prize in Institutional Analysis, and Finalist in the Suez Water Prize. His work has been cited by the NUS President as an example of research that advances knowledge and helps solve important problems for society.

Monday, 29 February 2016 12:15pm-1:30pm

Seminar Room 3-5, Level 3, Manasseh Meyer Building, Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy
469E Bukit Timah Road, Singapore 259774

Admission is free. Please register at lkyschoolevents@nus.edu.sg

Light lunch will be served for those who register by 24 February 2016.

Please note that photography, audio and video recording may occur during this event. All photography, audio and video recording may be used by the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy and the National University of Singapore for education, marketing, promotional and/or publication purposes. If you do not wish to have your image recorded or published, for compelling and legitimate grounds relating to your particular situation, please inform our staff.