Economic Development Board (EDB),
Michelle Tan, Head, International Organisations Programme Office

Michelle will provide an overview of the non-profit ecosystem in Singapore. She has 9 years of experience working in the Singapore Economic Development Board (EDB), the lead government agency in Singapore responsible for planning and executing strategies to enhance the country's position as a global business centre. She started her career in the Natural Resources division of EDB, where she oversaw the industry development of the commodities sector. She was later appointed to be the Centre Director of EDB's India office and was based in Mumbai for 3 years. Michelle currently leads the International Organisations Programme Office in EDB, responsible for developing the international not-for-profit sector in Singapore.

Save the Children International,
Rachid Kerrouf (MPA 2011-13), Head of Financial Planning & Analysis, Asia

Rachid comes from a corporate/private sector background, having worked for large MNCs in regional headquarter leadership roles in Asia for the Walt Disney Company, Electronic Arts and Arkadin. He has a passion for politics and is a graduate of Sciences Po Paris (Msc Finance) and the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy (MPA). Rachid joined the international NGO Save the Children International in 2015 as Head of Financial Planning and Analysis, monitoring a portfolio of US$600m value awards. He has been volunteering since 2013 as leadership Mentor at Aidah –a NGO empowering women through financial literacy and entrepreneurship skills.

The Union: Health Solutions for the Poor, International Union
Against Tuberculosis and Lung Disease
Prabodh Bhambal, Deputy Executive Director

Prabodh brings over 20 years of budget, finance and project management experience to his position, where he has been responsible for its global financial operations, including 200 projects in 89 countries, since 2007. He also acts as Chief Financial Officer, overseeing the financial assets and working closely with the Executive Director to streamline operational systems. In addition, he is also the Regional Director of The Union Asia Pacific office.
