

Mr. Sajjad Ashraf completed his 35-year diplomatic career as High Commissioner of Pakistan and Dean of the Diplomatic Corps in Singapore in December 2008. During the course of his career he worked on several assignments both at home and abroad.

Since February 2009 he is associated with the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, National University of Singapore (NUS), as an adjunct professor. Mr. Ashraf is also serving as a consultant with Garson Lehrman Group; a US based primary research and expert network service, since early 2009. In addition he serves as a Consultant with the Institute of South Asian Studies at the NUS.

Mr. Ashraf served as an advisor to Fullerton Financial Holdings, a wholly owned Temasek subsidiary (Singapore sovereign wealth fund) from 2009-2010. Between 2010 and 2013 he was a Visiting Senior Research Fellow/Associate Fellow at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore.

Mr. Ashraf has spoken at many seminars and conferences. His op-ed pieces and commentaries are published in several countries.

He holds a Master's degree in Political Science from Forman Christian College, Lahore where he was ranked top of his class and a Master's in Defence and Strategic Studies, from National Defence University, Islamabad. He has also completed management and leadership courses in Malaysia, Pakistan and Singapore.