HEAD OF COUNTERTERRORISM AND DANGEROUS ORGANISATIONS POLICY, ASIA

Facebook

Gullnaz manages Facebook's policies and systems to counter terrorism, violent extremism and hate. She particularly oversees Facebook's efforts across Asia, advising teams on developing trend patterns, supporting engineering teams in developing tools and technology, and building networks of expertise to augment Facebook's efforts.

Gullnaz has been examining regional politics and conflicts, and its impact on radicalism for the last ten years. She was previously a senior policy analyst with the Singapore government advising on social reform and public policy, and an associate specializing on terrorism in Southeast Asia at the International Institute for Strategic Studies (Asia).
