

TITUS YONG

SENIOR LECTURER (ADJUNCT)

Department of Strategy and Policy, NUS Business School

Titus Yong is passionate about fostering creative collaboration in teams and the use of strategic tools for innovation. He has been facilitating programmes for managerial teams in organisations across the Asia Pacific. In his role as mentor, Titus cherishes the opportunities to help MBAs envision meaningful career and life strategies.

Titus has served on the alumni exco boards of NUS Business School and Harvard University. He contributes to leading Garden of Values, a ground-up movement recently awarded by Singapore Kindness Movement. Titus is the Chairman of Harvard Prize Book (Singapore), an initiative to recognize altruism in youth and promote sustained caring behaviour in the community.
