Senior Management Programme 18 May – 12 June 2015

NUS Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy's 10th annual Senior Management Programme (SMP) is a four-week programme specially designed for senior executives and professionals in government, non-profit organisations and corporate bodies. Participants will benefit from a rigorous study of public policies, organisational change, public leadership and management, as well as frameworks and tools for multi-stakeholder governance.

The SMP consists of three weeks of classroom lectures and presentations in Singapore combined in 2015 with a week-long experiential learning trip to Japan.

By attending SMP, participants can expect to:

- gain broader perspectives on complex public policy issues;
- sharpen their analytical skills for multi-stakeholder settings;
- acquire new strategic management and leadership abilities; and
- join a unique network of global peers.

SMP alumni include senior public and private sector officers from Europe, Africa, Australia, China, India, Singapore and South East Asia.

Applications are now open for interested individuals. Apply now to join us on this extraordinary learning journey. Seats are limited. Application deadline is 17 April 2015.

TESTIMONIALS ■■■

“An inspiring programme like no other. Powerful speakers, friendly and helpful staff, soul-searching exchanges. All in all, a unique and enriching learning experience for equipping myself for the challenges ahead.”
