INSTITUTE OF POLICY STUDIES (IPS)

The Institute of Policy Studies (IPS) was established in 1988 as a think-tank dedicated to fostering good governance in Singapore through strategic policy research and discussion. In 2008, IPS became an autonomous research centre of the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy at the National University of Singapore.

Our core mission is to:

- Analyse Singapore public policy;
- Build bridges between thought leaders and engage diverse stakeholders to facilitate the exchange of views; and
- Communicate our research/survey findings and recommendations to the wider public to generate greater awareness of policy issues through forums, publications, and mainstream and digital media.

We hope through this to boost the quality of engagement on national issues and encourage the emergence of better solutions to policy challenges.

IPS takes a multi-disciplinary approach in its research and analysis of primarily Singapore-centric subjects, covering a wide range of topics and areas of study. IPS Social Lab – our centre for social indicators research – tracks and evaluates the implications of demographic trends, evolving social attitudes and emerging socio-economic challenges facing Singapore. IPS also administers the S R Nathan Fellowship for the Study of Singapore, which aims to advance public understanding and discussion of issues of critical national interest.

YOUR SUPPORT MATTERS

Donors provide critical financial resources to support sustained, inter-disciplinary research into some of Singapore's most complex public policy issues, and the subsequent dissemination of thoughtful analyses and recommendations to decision-makers across the public and private spheres.

NOTE: For Singapore tax residents, donations made to IPS are eligible for a 2.5 times tax deduction, which significantly reduces your net contribution. Contributions to IPS are also eligible for the prevailing 1:1 matching grant from the government.

IPS CORPORATE ASSOCIATES PROGRAMME

The IPS Corporate Associates (CA) Programme is our way of thanking our donors for their generous support and belief in IPS. It is a platform for Singapore's corporate leaders to tap IPS' wealth of research and multi-disciplinary analyses on domestic policy issues. In addition, it offers access to an extensive network of thought leaders and policymakers, as well as insights and intelligence into policy issues that may impact the business environment. By forging a bond with the business community, IPS also gains valuable ideas and wide-ranging viewpoints that inform our analyses and policy recommendations.
