Tribute to Professor Jon Quah

All at IPS extend our deepest condolences to Professor Stella R. Quah and her family on the passing of her beloved husband Professor Jon Quah.

Jon made invaluable contributions to IPS in its formative years. He was Deputy Director and then Acting Director from 1988 to 1990.

He worked hard to instil in IPS a willingness to engage the wider public in policy discussions, a mission which remains the institution's raison d'être. And he laid the foundations for us to conduct impactful applied public policy research.
