

Insights into Regional Politics, Economics, and Culture in Southeast Asia for Japanese Business Leaders and Policymakers

In a fast evolving environment, Japanese leaders from both public and private sectors can benefit greatly from strong regional and global perspectives. Designed and led by Adjunct Professor Kotaro Tamura from the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, this five-day course provides essential knowledge on and exposure to Southeast Asia's regional and national economic strategies, political dynamics, and socio-cultural diversity. This learning experience will enhance your capacity to craft effective strategies and expand business across Southeast Asia.

WHO SHOULD COME

- Middle to senior-level managers in Japanese national and multi-national corporations
- Japanese policymakers who are required to have an understanding of politics, economics, international relations, and cultures in Southeast Asia

WHAT YOU WILL GAIN

- Gain insights into the changing political, economic and social dynamics in Southeast Asia, and how these factors can affect trade and investment decisions
- Acquire skills to operate in multi-stakeholder settings
- Be exposed first-hand to Singapore's approach to economic development and technological advancement
- Sharpen your awareness of how to manage diverse teams in Asia effectively
- Be better equipped to craft effective strategies and expand business activities across the region

FEATURED FACULTY

Kotaro Tamura

Executive Education Distinguished Fellow, Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy

Former Senator and Parliamentary Secretary of Cabinet Office of Economic and Fiscal Policy, Japan

Explore the changing political, economic and social dynamics in Southeast Asia

Understand how to effectively manage diverse teams

Learn how to craft effective strategies and expand business activities

Email
lkyspoe@nus.edu.sg

LinkedIn
Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy
Executive Education

Website
https://lkyspp.nus.edu.sg/executive-education

