INSTITUTE OF POLICY STUDIES (IPS)

The Institute of Policy Studies (IPS) was established in 1988 as a think-tank dedicated to fostering good governance in Singapore through strategic policy research and discussion. In 2008, it became an autonomous research centre of the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy at the National University of Singapore. IPS examines issues of critical national interest across a variety of fields, and studies the attitudes and aspirations of Singaporeans through surveys of public perception. In doing so, it hopes to boost the quality of engagement on national issues and encourage the emergence of better solutions to policy challenges.

RESEARCH AGENDA

- Managing the challenges of an ageing society
- Inequality and social mobility
- Managing diversities
- Governance of a city-state

These translate into research projects, action-based research, closed-door policy discussions, public forums, publications, opinion essays and teaching curriculum.

The Institute's four workstreams and examples of our work can be found below:

IPS also administers the S R Nathan Fellowship for the Study of Singapore, which aims to advance public understanding and discussion of issues of national interest.

IPS CORPORATE ASSOCIATES PROGRAMME

The IPS Corporate Associates (CA) Programme provides opportunities for CA members to keep abreast of and participate in discussions on major global developments, as well as engage with key policymakers on critical local issues that may impact their business environment. It is also a platform for Singapore's corporate leaders to tap IPS' wealth of research and multi-disciplinary analyses on domestic policy issues. By forging a bond with the business community, IPS gains valuable ideas and wide-ranging viewpoints that inform our analyses and policy recommendations.
